We will attempt to provide answers to all of the questions below. Due to periods of incomplete data (information not provided to the cemetery by family members during previous decades), not all data desired is available. Therefore, your request may have all of the information sought, some of it, or in some instances, no information at all. No refund will be issued unless the person you are seeking information on is not buried in Oak Hill.

NOTE: As a general rule, we cannot provide the names of parents, children or other relatives because family relationships have not been recorded in our records.
